2. Board's Ref. No.D. 2990/50-15(c) dt. 31.12.50.

As reported to the Board in this Office reference first cited, the Probationary Deputy Collector, Sri D. Krishna has been undergoing training in the Bellary District Treasury from 29.12.50 According to the programme issued, he has to be in independent charge of the District Treasury from the afternoon of 12.1.1951. to 28.1.51. But according to Board's orders second cited above, the Probationary Deputy Collector has to report himself before the Assistant Settlement Officer, Nellore on the forenoon of ~~the Assistant~~ 22.1.51. Hence he cannot be placed in independent charge of the Bellary District Treasury for two weeks from 13.1.1951. I have therefore, asked the Probationary Deputy Col-

Bellary for 8 days from the forenoon of 13.1.1951, when he would be completing his first fortnight's training in the Dis-

The Probationary Deputy Collector will have to be placed in independent charge of the Bellary District Treasury for a fortnight from the forenoon of 19.2.51 (i.e.), after he completes his settlement training of 4 weeks.

In this connection I invite attention to my reference second cited and request that the Board may be pleased to obtain the orders of the Government to place the Probationary Deputy Collector in independent charge of the Bellary District Treasury for a fortnight from 19.2.51 and the permanent Treasury Deputy Collector, to attend to the work in the correspondence and Account sections of the Collector's office during the above cited

2. The Probationary Deputy Collector will have to be in independent charge of the District Treasury for two weeks from 22.2.51 to 7.3.51. But it is not possible for the permanent Treasury Deputy Collector to inspect during that period of two weeks any of the sub-treasuries due for his inspection in 1951, as it falls in the kist month. This will be contrary to the instructions contained in paragraph 2 of B.P. 99 Press dated 2.12.30. The permanent treasury Deputy Collector will therefore attend to the correspondence of the Collector ~~during the~~ ⁱⁿ office as Personal Assistant to the Collector during the period in question as already reported in this office C.No. 6916/50-A4 dt. 3.1.51.
